Translation Practice Exam

This exam provides the opportunity to practise writing an exam in similar conditions to the CTTIC certification exam.

Exam details:

1. Only candidates for certification in good standing are eligible to write this exam from home either by hand or using their own personal laptop.
2. You may translate one or two texts. The exam will last 1.5 hours if one text, 3 hours if two texts.
3. Selected text(s) will be about 200 words and it will be in the same nature as a compulsory/optional text used in CTTIC exams.
4. It will be an open book exam; registrants may bring their print dictionaries and other reference books.
5. In-person exams will be written by hand on lined paper as it is the way registrants will be writing the CTTIC certification exam.
6. One marker will be assigned to each exam; the marker will follow the same criteria that applies when marking the certification exam.
7. The marker will provide a comprehensive marker's comment sheet, in which all mistakes will be indicated, and corrections will be offered where possible. Exams will be marked down to zero and a marker's comment sheet will be provided even if a registrant achieves a passing mark.
8. Unlike the CTTIC exam, registrants will receive a marker's comment sheet as well as their marked exams to make sure that this is a fully educational experience for them. This feedback should provide a reasonable idea of whether a registrant is ready to take the exam and, if not, where they need more work.
9. Registrants are reminded that even if they pass the Practice Exam, they might not necessarily pass the Certification exam, but if they fail, the chances are high that they will fail the Certification exam.
10. The fee for a one-text exam for ATIO Members is $200+HST. The fee for non-members is $250+HST.
11. Registrants who wish to translate two-texts as in the actual CTTIC exam will be charged $250+HST for members and $300+HST for non-members.
12. Registrants may take as many Practice Exams as they wish.
